GAMING LAWS OF NEVADA.

The following State law, relating to game and fish, in effect since November 21st 1861, is found on pages 492-4 of the Compiled Laws of Nevada:

GAMING.
4006. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons at any time to kill or injure, or pursue with such intent, any sparrow, blue jay, martin, thrush, mocking-bird, swallow, red-breast, cat-bird, quail, wren, or humming-bird, or to disturb the nest or eggs of said bird.

4008. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons at any time after the first day of January and before the first day of July in each year, to catch, kill, or destroy, or to pursue with such intent, any deer, antelope, elk, mountain sheep, or goat, or to have in his possession, or to expose to sale any of the wild game or animals mentioned in this section, during the season when the killing, injuring, or pursuing is herein prohibited; provided, that nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to prohibit any person or persons in taking any bird, fowl, fish, or animal, at any time, for the purpose of tanning the same, or for scientific purposes.

4010. Every person or persons offending against any of the provisions of this Act, and on conviction thereof, shall forfeit and pay for every such offense a penalty of not less than five dollars, with costs of suit, nor more than two hundred dollars, with costs of suit, to be recovered in a civil action in the name of the United States or the State of Nevada, before any Justice of the Peace of the proper county; such fine, so collected, shall be paid into the County Treasury for the benefit of the common schools of the State of Nevada; further, that all such fines and costs shall be collected without stay of execution, and such defendants may, by order of the Court, be confined within the County Jail until such fines and costs shall have been paid.

FISH.
4011. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons, between the first day of January and the first day of September of each year, to catch or kill any river, lake, brook or salmon trout, in any of the streams, rivers, lakes or other waters within this State, with any seine, gill-net, or any spear, weir, fence, basket, trap, explosive material, or other substance or implements, or in any manner except by hook and line; and it shall not be lawful at any time for any person or persons to catch or kill such fish in any of the waters in this State by any poisonous, deleterious or stupefying drug, explosive material, or other substance. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than thirty dollars, or more than three hundred dollars, together with costs of suit, or by imprisonment in the County Jail in the county in which such person or persons shall have been convicted of such offense, for a period not less than twenty days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

4012. All persons, firms or corporations, who have erected mill-dams, water-weirs, or other obstructions, on rivers or streams, within the waters of this State, shall, within thirty days after the passage of this Act, construct fish-ways or fish-ladders, at such mill-dams, water weirs, or obstructions, so that, at all seasons of the year, fish may ascend above such dam, weir, or obstruction, to deposit their spawn. Any person, firm or corporation, owning such mill-dam or obstruction, who shall fail to construct or keep in repair such fish-way or fish-ladder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine, upon conviction thereof, not exceeding $300 dollars; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to the waters of Carson river, Humboldt river, Walker river, or any of the streams in this State situated east of Reese river.

WADE HAMPTON INAUGURATED.

The inauguration of Wade Hampton as Governor of South Carolina took place in front of Carolina Hall Wednesday afternoon. The square in front of the hall was densely packed with persons of both races and the house-tops were covered with spectators. At 2:30 p. m. Hampton was escorted to the stand amid demonstrations of great enthusiasm. The members of the General Assembly occupied the space immediately surrounding the stand, with the crowd in the rear. General Hampton then read his inaugural address, of which the following is an extract:

It is with feelings of the profoundest solicitude that I assume the arduous duties and grave responsibilities of the high position to which the people of South Carolina have called me. It is amid events unprecedented in the history of the republic that I take the chair as Chief Magistrate of this State. In a time of profound peace, when no legal officer had been resisted in the proper discharge of his functions, we have witnessed a spectacle abhorrent to every patriot heart and fatal to republican institutions—federal troops used to promote the success of a political party. Undismayed, though shocked, by this gross violation of the Constitution of the country, our people—with a determination that no force could subvert, no fraud could defeat—kept steadily and peacefully in the path of duty, resolved to assert their rights as American freemen at the ballot-box. What the verdict of the people of South Carolina has been, you need not be told. It has reverberated throughout the State, and its echoes come back to us from every land where liberty is venerated, declaring in tones that cannot be mistaken, that standing on the Constitution of our country, we propose to obey its laws, to preserve, as far as in us lies, its peace and honor, and to carry out in good faith every pledge made by us for reform and honest government. We intend to prove to the world the sincerity of our declaration, and that the sole motive which inspired the grand contest we have so successfully made was not a paltry ambition for party supremacy but a sacred hope of redeeming our State. But it is sought to wrest the fruits of this victory from us by gigantic fraud and base conspiracy. He recited the proceedings of the Republican House, the use of the United States troops and the withdrawal of Democrats from the House, under compulsion, to preserve peace. He denounced all those things as "revolutionary usurpations of power by the minority and fraudulent violations of the Constitution." The last crowning act of infamy was that by which the candidate for the office of Governor, defeated by the popular vote, had himself declared elected by his co-conspirators. It is due to my position, as Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth, to place on record my solemn and indignant protest against acts which I consider as subversive of civil liberty and destructive of one form of government. A great task is before the Conservative party of this State. They entered on this contest with a platform so broad, so strong and so liberal that every honest citizen could stand upon it; they recognized and accepted the amendments to the Constitution in good faith; they pledged themselves to work for reform, re-establish good government; they promised to keep up an efficient system of public education, and declared solemnly that all citizens of South Carolina, of both parties, should be regarded as equals in the eye of the law, and all to be fully protected in the enjoyment of every political right now possessed by them. To the faithful observance of these pledges we stand committed. I, as a representative of the Conservative party, hold myself held by every dictate of honor and good faith to use every effort to have these pledges redeemed fully and honestly. Let us show to all that the true interests of both races can best be secured by cultivating peace and promoting prosperity among all classes. My fellow-citizens, I rely confidently on your support and that of the members of the General Assembly in my efforts to attain these laudable ends, and I trust that all branches of the Government will unite cordially in this patriotic work, so that we may hope to see the dawn of a brighter day in our State. God, in His infinite mercy, grant it may come speedily, and may He shower the richest blessings of peace and happiness on our whole people.

At the close of the address the oath of office was administered by Justice Marshall to Hampton as Governor, and to W. D. Simpson as Lieutenant Governor, the crowd standing uncovered with the ceremony was being performed. The chair in which Hampton was seated was then wrapped in the national colors and he was borne on the shoulders of a dozen men to his hotel, escorted by the entire crowd. Several prominent gentlemen addressed the multitude from the front of the hotel. The Congressional Committee occupied a prominent position on the balcony.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Chaffee has introduced a bill authorizing the citizens of Colorado, Nevada and the Territories to sell and remove timber on the public domain for mining and domestic purposes. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Another pigeon match has been arranged between the champions, Bogardus and Robinson, for $1,000 a side, to come off before Christmas.

The Washington correspondent of the Harold, in a special says he thinks Tilden is elected and that he must be inaugurated.

The President, in reply to an invitation tendered him to visit Virginia after his term of office expired, said he intended to leave for Havana in March, after Hayes's inauguration, and after spending a few weeks there to sail for Europe to remain some time.

The Senate Committee on Elections will on Monday take up the case of Stahel, Republican Elector from Missouri, who contests the place of Frost. The case is delayed for the arrival of important papers.

In the Senate Thurman still has the floor on the Oregon case.

A correspondent at Columbia telegraphs that the Republican House have adopted the resolution declaring the election of all the present Circuit Judges valid. The Senate will convene and the result will necessarily be fatal to Hampton's assumption.

Odell, Overwright and Watts, the Oregon Republican Presidential Electors, and George A. Steel, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, have left Portland for Washington.

THE SWITZERLAND PRESIDENT.

From an exchange we learn something of the manner of choosing the President of Switzerland, and other matters connected with the Government. It seems that M. Herr, who during the present year has filled the position of Vice President of the Federal Council of Switzerland, has been elected President of the Council for the year ensuing. The President and Vice President of the Council are the first magistrates of the Republic. Their term of office is for one year, and they are not eligible for re-election until the expiration of another year. The Federal Council is the chief executive authority of the Republic. It consists of seven members elected by the Federal Assembly for three years. The Federal Assembly comprises the representatives of the people, and is the two legislative Chambers united.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

The New York Harold gives the Republicans one majority in the next House of Representatives, while the New York Tribune concedes a Democratic majority of three or four. It is more probable that the Democrats will control the organization of the House by a majority of three or four.

The meeting at Johnson's pool-rooms in New York Wednesday night was very violent. The majority were against declaring bets off, but the proprietors are likely to follow Morrissey's example. At Johnson's bets were offered three to one that Hayes would be the next President, but found no takers.

The Japanese are tolerant of innovations, but when a German started a newspaper and named it the Ostasiatische Zeitung, forbearance ceased to be a virtue and they arose in their wrath, and the editor suspended the paper and left hurriedly for San Francisco on important business.

The Ormsby County Grand Jury has, we learn, indicted an influential employee of the V. & T. R. R. for bribing a voter in the recent election. The evidence seems conclusive against the accused. The Carson papers do not seem disposed to give the public much information on the subject.—Va. Chronicle.

The recount of the vote of Eureka county in the contested Assessorship case gave Knight, the Republican candidate, a majority of two.

Changes in the personnel of the next session of the United States Senate are likely, in one or two instances, to occur, but the political complexion of the body will remain very nearly as it is. The outgoing Senators on the 4th day of March, 1877, according to the Bulletin, from which this article is taken, are: Republicans—Clayton of Arkansas, Teller of Colorado, Logan of Illinois, Wright of Iowa, Harvey of Kansas, West of Louisiana, Blaine of Maine, Boutwell of Massachusetts, Ferry of Michigan, Windom of Minnesota, Alcorn of Mississippi, Hitchcock of Nebraska, Orin of New Hampshire, Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Anthony of Rhode Island, Robertson of South Carolina, and Howe of Wisconsin; total, 16. Democrats—Goldthwaite of Alabama, Saulsbury of Delaware, Norwood of Georgia, Stevenson of Kentucky, Ransom of North Carolina, Kelly of Oregon, Cooper of Tennessee, Johnson of Virginia, and Davis of West Virginia; total, 9. Independent—Hamilton of Texas; total, 1. Grand total, 26. Of the entire number, but two States are quite sure of changing their political representation—Arkansas and Texas. Colorado has already, thus early, re-elected Teller; Oregon has succeeded Kelly with another Democrat, and South Carolina is to have, it is barely possible, a contest, however absurd the idea may appear. As the Senate is the sole judge of the eligibility of its own members, allowing no State Constitution to interfere with its rights, as determined in the Trumbull case of 1855, it may be that one or more other cases besides the South Carolina will undergo somewhat of an investigation before the Committee on Elections and Privileges.

STATE SCHOOL OF MINES, COLORADO.

The second term of this excellent school is nearly its middle. Sixteen students are taking its full course. The course of study during the present term is, metallurgy and applied chemistry, mining engineering, mineralogy, geology, drawing, assaying and telegraphy, with ample opportunity for actual mine, field work and ore treatment. The following is the School faculty:

Prof. Gregory Board, M. E., mineralogy, metallurgy, assaying; E. L. Borthoud, C. E., civil engineering, geology; Richard Pierce, P. G. S., practical metallurgy; Theo. F. Van Wageningen, M. E., mining engineering; James Teal, mechanical preparation of ores; J. A. Yonny, chemistry; Rev. Thos. L. Bellam, A. M., mathematics. The publication of the above gives the Barrett Sentinel the chance to suggest:

It would be well if Nevada had just such a school as that; it would probably be of greater benefit to the State than the Elko University.

The point is well taken, and we would like to see the Legislature so decide it.

A SHANGHAI correspondent, writing under date of October 7th, and discussing the characters of our Ministers in comparison with those of France, England and Germany, remarks:

Perhaps, as rank gives precedence, I should have first spoken of the Minister, John A. Bingham, but he well comes last, even in my brief remarks about Japan, for he has done nothing to excite the animosity or admiration of his countrymen. They are inclined to compare him to Charles J. DeLong, who was indeed the American friend. Bold even to rashness, he did good work for his people, twisted the Mikado about his finger, well-nigh revolutionized the empire, helped the needy, pushed on the rich, and ended as American diplomats generally end—by leaving a dozen irons in the fire, all intended for the public good. Bingham took them up gingerly, examined them thoughtfully; laid them down tenderly, and left them melt away. He can go into rapturous sentimentality over a pretty landscape or a ruined temple, but when it comes to honest work in the service of the State, he exclaims, "Alas, I am old!"

THE SAN RESULT OF A RASH ACT.—The following dispatch is just received, special to the Elko Independent:

TUSCARORA, Dec. 13. You will be shocked to hear of the untimely death of Louis Engler, late of your city. His remains were brought here last evening by J. Duff Brown, who informs us that the unfortunate young man succumbed to his awful fate when about four miles north of Marshall's Station. An inquest was held this morning, and the verdict of the Coroner's Jury was, "Talked to death."

We understand that poor Engler had the temerity to start on a trip to Tuscarora in company with Duff Brown, and, as might have been expected, perished in the attempt.—Elko Independent.
